

POTTERS' PARLEY ON AUG. 14

Today

Japan's Babies.
General News, Good News.
Paying Cash from Women.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE
[The opinions expressed in this column are strictly those of Mr. Brisbane and not necessarily in consonance with the policies of The Review.]

JAPAN, with the highest baby death rate in the world, appoints a government commission to remedy the evil. This nation, with the highest death rate of any civilized nation, for mothers in childbirth, does nothing to remedy the evil and disgrace.
But if there is mortality among calves or young pigs, or their mothers, we see to that.

BECAUSE of hold-up men and better banking facilities, 4,700 employees of the United States bureau of engraving and printing work on part time.

Those employes manufacture American money. When put in payrolls, our modern bandits steal it and shoot
a few. Many firms now use checks instead of cash.

Last year, seven billion checks were drawn in this country, seventy checks for each of 100,000,000 people.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL NEW broadcasts important facts concerning air travel.

Air mail had only one line, from New York to San Francisco, two years ago. Now it reaches most of the important American cities and spreads out to Canada, Cuba, Panama and other Central American cities.

GOVERNMENT mail pilots fly 25-600 miles every day, the distance around the earth at the Equator, and before the year ends daily air mail flights will have increased by 5,000 miles.

All this aircraft development is due to the post office, for which the people will be grateful.

Observe that the post office is government owned and operated. Perhaps other useful development would come if our "best minds," which means our biggest "eggheads," would allow government to extend its activities.

Much praised private ownership, represented by railroads, has not done much pioneering, although airplanes interest railroads, since they threaten dangerous competition.

A start in flying has been promised, however, by the Pennsylvania and Santa Fe and others will wake up, gradually. The New York Central plans a start.

SCHOOLS of investment for "ladies with a little money" are needed everywhere. Women inheriting money keep it, on the average, about two years. Then some kind adviser, a man, of course, gets it or makes the owner lose it through his foolishness.

In New York a nurse, 52 years old, about to retire from hard work, kills herself. Her life's savings had been lost in a mining swindle. Real estate sharks, oil sharks, all kinds of sharks, swindle women. They believe, poor things, what they want to believe, that they are to be made rich.

WOMEN should not invest in what THEY DO NOT UNDERSTAND. They should not buy land that they have not seen. And having seen it, they should think it over, examine it several times, consult some skeptical friend, then wait a month, and see it again.

DON'T believe fairy tales. Ask yourself, "Just how would I, me, myself, not somebody else, actually make a living out of that land? Or, if it is to be sold at a profit, how do I know that I can sell it at a profit? And why doesn't the man keep it and take the huge profit himself?"

If you are leaving money to wife or daughters, fix things so that no other man will be able to get it from them.

MASKED ROBBER LOOTS HOMES

Awakens Victims and Threatens Them With Pistol.

CLEVELAND, July 31.—A masked burglar who entered three homes in Cleveland Heights early today, awakened the residents in each instance and threatened them with a pistol, obtained money, jewelry and silverware with a total value of about $1,200.

One of the houses entered was that of John P. Royal, former manager of Keith's theatre here. Mrs. Royal was awakened when the robber entered her bedroom. Pointing a revolver at her, the marauder forced her to go with him to her husband's room, awaken him, and then, still holding them at the point of his revolver, took about $200 worth of silverware and fled.

The homes of Jacob Friedman and Otto Wittman were robbed in similar fashion. At the latter house the family was roused by the screams of a 15-year-old daughter, Jeanette.

CHAMPION GENE TUNNEY RETIRES

NO CONTENDER TO WIN CROWD, HE SAYS AS HE "STEPS ASIDE"

Announcement Made at Luncheon Given Boxing Writers.

OFFERS BELT

Hints Return of Dempsey in Decision to Quit.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Gene
Tunney is through with boxing.
He said so himself today.

The long expected announcement materialized at a luncheon given boxing writers at the Biltmore by Tunney.

Suggests Elimination Tourney.
Gene stated his reason very fully.
There is no contender capable of attracting a large purse, it would be two or three years before another is developed and that is too long for him to wait, and so he "steps aside."

"May the best man win," he says in his swan song.

"To the victor belongs the spoils," he echoes, and that may mean the return of the redoubtable Dempsey, but Gene doesn't say that.

To show his admiration for the game that brought him from humble shipping clerk to the estate of a millionaire, Gentleman Gene will offer a championship belt to go to the winner of an elimination tournament.

Future Plans Indefinite.
As to his future plans Tunney is less definite. He is still young, he avows, and will start anew in another "line of business." Whether this business is to be matrimony, the stage, films, stocks and bonds or the pursuit of literary endeavors, he fails to state.

Admiration for the game and a bow in the direction of Tex Rickard are other features of this quite unique retirement communique.

If he were to fight again (and they do say they all do come back sometime) it would be for good odds, says Rickard, whom he calls the "foremost promoter."

He acknowledges a debt of gratitude to the little im-pressario who made him and bows himself out of the fight picture with the boxer's traditional "good luck."

MYERS Y COOPER IN WILMINGTON

WILMINGTON, O., July 31.—Pledging that, if elected governor of Ohio,
"there will be no increase in taxes and no state deficits during my administration," Myers Y. Cooper, Cincinnati, a candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, made an address here today.

Cooper, who is touring the Seventh congressional district, was scheduled to talk today at Mason, Lebanon, Waynesville, Spring Valley, Xenia,
Washington C. H., Mt. Sterling, London, Sabina, Wilmington and Blane-

NEW YORK, July 31.—Three men were reported killed, and a fourth exposed with serious injuries today when the steam lighter Chancellor blew up and sank off the foot of Edgewater street, Staten Island.

The vessel's boiler exploded as the crew was getting up steam to work on the salvage of the army dredge Navesink, which went down in the narrows several weeks ago after colliding with another ship.

The Chancellor was owned by the Merritt Chapman Scott Corporation.

$30,000 FIRE IN OHIO MINE

Blaze Occurs on Eve of Goodyear Operations.

CAMBRIDGE, O., July 31.—Fire starting from a short circuit in the power plant of the Goodyear mine of the Akron Coal company, 12 miles southeast of here, today had caused more than $30,000 damage. The blaze was discovered late yesterday afternoon, and before the fire apparatus from here could be summoned the boiler house also had caught.

The mine was in readiness for operation, it was said, and the buildings and equipment destroyed will be immediately replaced, officials declared.
Clarence Long, superintendent, was overcome by smoke, but today was suffering no ill effects.

Majority of Executive Council of American Federation of Labor Favor Herbert Hoover

By LAWRENCE SULLIVAN
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 31.—
Confronted with the most difficult political decision in its history the executive council of the American Federation of Labor met here today to formulate its recommendations for the presidential campaign.

A majority of the council of twelve favor Herbert Hoover, according to an individual poll of the membership today by International News Service.
But four members came to this seashore resort determined to champion the fight wine and beer plank, repeatedly adopted by the federal convention every year since 1920, and to fight for an emphatic indorsement of

$822 FINDING IN CITY FAVOR AGAINST BANK IS MADE HERE

State Examiner Says No Interest Paid on Bond Account.

REPORT FILED

Contracts With Sinking
Fund Trustees
Expire.

Charging that no interest had been paid on the bond and coupon account of the sinking fund trustees, a finding of $822.70 in favor of the city of East Liverpool against the Potters' National bank was made today by John H.
Powelson, Coshocton, state examiner of municipal offices.

Money on deposit in the bond and coupon account, the examiner claims, is subject to interest rates of two per cent. During the period from September 29, 1924 to June 21, 1928, this bank has credited no interest to this fund, the report says.

"We requested the Potters' National bank to furnish the balances of the bond and coupon account as shown by their records," Powelson's report reads. "The cashier informed us he would not furnish such information or permit us to have access to the ledger sheets of the account to prepare tabulations of the daily balances. Therefore we were compelled to expend much time and laborious work to ascertain the daily balances of the bond and coupon account from the statements of deposits and cancellations periodically furnished the sinking fund clerk by the Potters' National bank."

Agreements Expire.
In the event the Potters' National bank fails to credit the city with this interest the city solicitor will bring suit in the common pleas court to obtain a judgment against the bank, city officials said. A copy of Powelson's findings has been forwarded to the trustees of the sinking fund, to the directors of the Potters' National bank and also to the state auditor.

Powelson also reported that contracts between the sinking fund trustees and the three East Liverpool banking institutions acting as deposi-taries for city funds have expired and banks which are now paying interest on city funds at the rate of two per cent have been acting without an agreement.

of complications.

ville, and George, East Liverpool, and

Mrs. Richard Davidson, both of East Liverpool.

o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the Wasson home, 506 Sugar street, in ial will be made in Spring Grove

KIWANIS TRUSTEE RETURNS HOME

Russell C. Heddleston has returned from Chicago where he attended a meeting of the International Kiwanis trustees on Friday and Saturday.

on Friday where they conferred with the committee in charge of the 1929 Kiwanis convention. The trustees were guests of the Milwaukee club at a banquet Friday night.

The legislative labor record of Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York Submit Convention Reports.
The non-partisan political committee of the federation consisting of five members, all of whom attended both the Kansas City and Houston conventions, submitted for its report a straight forward narrative of its experience at the convention cities and a recital of the labor plank in each platform.

This report will be passed on to the membership of the federation for its guidance in the election.

The report of the non-partisan committee was unanimously approved by President William Green, of the federation; Matthew Wolf and Martin E.
Ryan, vice presidents; Frank Morris-son, secretary, and James M. O'Connor, president of the metal trades division, one of the largest units in the federation.

Cite Hoover's Record.
Although the by-laws of the federation provide that in cases of non-partisan reports the committee shall cite to the membership only the legislative records of the respective candidate the committee, in view of the fact that Herbert Hoover never has served in an elective office, went beyond the letter of the rule to call attention to Hoover's activities in behalf of the

Excursion Steamers Will Race to Park

Homer Smith and Washington Will Test Speed in Ohio River Run From Pittsburgh to Rock Springs on Saturday.

The excursion steamers, Homer Smith and Washington, will race from Pittsburgh to Rock Springs park, next Saturday, when they will bring approximately 4,500 passengers to the Chester resort. Winner of the race will receive a silver cup, furnished by Park Manager C. C. Macdonald.
The race is an aftermath of the 25-mile contest between the packets, Chris Green and the Betsy Ann, between Richmond, Va., Cincinnati last week. The boats will leave Pittsburgh at 8 o'clock, daylight savings time, which is 7 o'clock, East Liverpool time.

The boat, which reaches the Emsworth dam, six and one-tenth miles below the junction of the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers, will probably be the victor. The two crafts will pass through seven locks between Pittsburgh and Chester, and owing to the time required in the locks there is little likelihood of a change of position after the Emsworth dam is reached.

The Homer Smith, which operates out of Pittsburgh during the summer, will carry 2,500 passengers, while the Washington, a "tramp" excursion steamer operating between Parkersburg and Pittsburgh will carry 2,000.
The Smith is equipped with a 2,500-horsepower engine while the Washington's engine is rated at 550-horsepower.

The two crafts will carry members of the Patriotic Americans, a Pittsburgh fraternal organization to the park. The boats are expected to dock near the Chester mill at about 12 o'clock and will leave on the return trip at 5 o'clock.

that he had been "talking too much"
are said to be cause of the slaying.

he was killed following a quarrel.

"PRINCE OF CRACKSMEN" GIVEN JOB WHEN HE OPENS POLICE SAFE

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 31.—A shabby wanderer and self-styled "prince of cracksmen" has a good job today because he was able to open a safe in police headquarters here.

An absent-minded policeman had locked the safe after leaving the combination inside. He was about to drill open the safe—a long and expensive job—when the shabby stranger volunteered to open it with nothing but a piece of sandpaper if the police would provide him with a free night's lodging as a reward.

While a group of awed officers watched, the safe was deftly and quickly opened by the ex-convict, who boasted that he once had been "one of the best in the business." As a reward he got a bed, a good breakfast and cigars, and a job pushing wheel chairs along the boardwalk.

day, August 27, it was announced today by school officials.

Addresses at the sessions will be delivered by O. D. Lambert, Morgantown; Gertrude Hobbs, Huntington; L. T. Tustin, state department of education, and Dr. A. E. McClure, county health officer. Music will be directed by Miss Bess Lowry of Huntington.

Mrs. Ola Porter Hostess.

Mrs. Ola Porter will be hostess to the Ladies' Aid society of the First Methodist Episcopal church at her home in Grant street. Coverdine dinner will be served.

Stockholders to Pay In Bank Failure

Federal Judge Orders Receiver to Collect Li- ability in New Cumber- land Crash.

Judge William E. Baker in the United States district court at Elkins has entered an order directing H. A. Graham, receiver for the First National Bank of New Cumberland to collect liability from the stockholders of the bank which was declared insolvent in December, 1927.

Assessment against the stockholders of the bank was made up by the comptroller of the treasury at Washington, to make up a deficit in the accounts of the bank. John A. Brandon and James E. Brandon, Jr., former officials of the bank are now serving 10-year terms in the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., confessing making false statement to the treasury department on the condition of the bank.

A copy of the order which directs Receiver Graham to collect double liability from the stockholders was placed on record in the office of Clerk John H. Conrad at the federal building yesterday in Wheeling.

The bank was capitalized at $50,000, and a part of the double liability had been paid in.

The order directs the receiver to collect the following amounts:

John A. Brandon, $1,000; James E. Brandon, $3,300; James E. Brandon, Jr., $5,900; Naomi P. Campbell, administratrix of the estate of John A. Campbell, deceased, $12,300; Esther R. Brandon, $200; Isabel I. Cullen, $500; Sara Cassidy, $600; Mary McDonald $500; Eliza Porter, administratrix of the estate of James Porter, deceased, $1,300; Charles S. Bradley, administrator of the estate of Mrs. J. R. Doneho, deceased, $1,000. Interest at six per cent is to be charged against each of the stockholders from January 23, 1928. Costs of collection must also be defrayed by the stockholders, under the court ruling.

By virtue of the fact that Naomi P. Campbell and John A. Campbell, Jr., have confessed ownership of capital stock of $16,000 and $1,400 value respectively, the receiver is ordered to proceed to collect the liability due from each. The same ruling applies to James A. McKenzie, who has confessed ownership of $1,000 worth of the capital stock.

Attorneys interested in the action now pending in federal court said yesterday that suits to force sale of certain real estate may be anticipated in the near future.

Campaign Against Drowning

Prompted by the fact that drownings are on the increase in the United States, judging from the toll exacted during June and July by rivers, lakes and creeks, the Young Men's Christian association today announced plans for a three-day campaign to be conducted in the East Liverpool district against drowning.

Paul W. Goss, representing the American Red Cross, will be in charge of lessons in life saving and general water safety, at the Y. M. C. A. pool on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Aug. 6, 7 and 8.

Nearly 6,500 persons are drowned in the United States every year, according to statistical reports. Last year the total was estimated at 8,000, while reports so far indicate the latter figure will be surpassed this year. Mounting toll is stressed by the fact that five lives have been sacrificed in the East Liverpool district in the last few weeks.

The Red Cross has evolved a definite technique and has reduced life saving to a science. The method to be taught by the expert emphasizes the fact that knowledge more than strength is needed to save a drowning person.

East Liverpool swimmers should take advantage of this opportunity to enroll in a campaign to reduce the nation's annual drowning which is all the more tragic because it is for the most part preventable.

Another Survey

One of the popular pastimes is the gathering of statistics concerning this or that, and then analyzing them in an effort to prove, or disprove, a theory or at least make a theory workable. The latest concerns the number of love affairs of an individual during a lifetime—and the fickleness of woman.

This investigation into human relationship was made by the Bureau of Social Hygiene of New York city. And the research work, pursued in the most matter-of-fact manner and scientific spirit, covers a period of four years. Now the report of the findings is revealed for the first time.

It seems that each individual has seven love affairs—or rather that the average among the returns gathered from 200 men and women included in this survey is seven each. And the statistics also disclose that the girls are more fickle than the men—slightly more, that is.

Among the 200 there were 100 men and an equal number of women. The men accounted for 681 love affairs, and the women for 677. Three of the women admitted, however, they had never loved any man. Twenty-nine of the hundred men—and they were all husbands—permitted their affections to wander from the family circle, and forty-one of the wives among the 100 women found clandestine solace.

Ages of the men and women in this survey ranged from 23 to 59, the majority being between 30 and 40. These figures are interesting for the reason that they disclosed love affairs among the women in their 20's, and that another peak in the soaring of their affections was attained in their 40's. And it also was disclosed that the women folks reach the peak of their love affairs earlier than the men. That is to say, the women concentrated in fewer years, while the men permitted their amours to extend over a longer period of years.

Just what this survey will accomplish remains to be seen. Some will deny the authenticity of the figures. Others will laugh and say "What of it?" So it goes.

Women Election Factors

East Liverpool district women will be factors in the August 14 primaries and the November election, judging from their interest in candidates and campaign issues.

Women, it seems, have come to the conclusion that the right to vote is something which should be exercised, and so they have gone into the field this year to ascertain what politics is all about. There always have been some women who were keen for politics, and who were active in party councils. But the rank and file of the women have failed to respond as they should. This year, however, indications are this order will be changed.

When women meet candidates for office face to face and engage them in open discussion of policies, platforms, law enforcement and the like they are showing good judgment and a desire to get both sides of the question before making up their minds which way to vote. That is as it should be.

If the men show half as much interest in the primary and the fall election as the women are showing there ought to be an outpouring of votes in every precinct.

Drama in Yacht Race

Loss of one of the yachts racing across the ocean from New York to Santander, Spain, adds drama to an adventure which has been renewed after a lapse of many years.

Probably Santander was selected as the goal because the donors of the two gold cups, King Alfonso and Queen Victoria of Spain, can step down from their royal villa overlooking Santander's bay and present the trophies to the winning crews. The royal summer residence at Santander is, in fact, a box seat for the finish of the race. The king and queen can watch the yachts as they sweep into the spacious bay.

Santander's port opens off the Bay of Biscay, 96 miles west of the better known resort, San Sebastian, and 120 miles west of Biarritz. Although Spaniards throng to its beaches to escape Madrid's heat, Santander is little known abroad.

The town is progressive, modern, prosperous and therefore is not sought out by tourists in search of ancient landmarks. However, between a sun-scorched, crumbling cathedral and a sun-warmed sandy beach, the yacht racers will find themselves met by a crowd of eager, fashionable Madrid resorters.

HASKIN DAILY LETTER

By Frederick J. Haskin

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 31.—Americans wanted to see other people's money so much last year that they spent $1,254,289,000 for the privilege. The figure under states that full amount for it relates only to what was paid in interest on loans made at banks which are members of the federal reserve system. The statistics for 1927 have just been made public by the federal reserve board at Washington. There are some thousands of state and private banks which do not belong to the federal reserve system and what they collected in interest from the public is not published.

A billion and a quarter dollars is a sum of money so vast that in the infancy of this republic the government itself could not have dreamed of commanding such an amount as a capital sum, yet in 1927 the American people were able to pay out that much merely as rent for the use of a much greater amount.

The capital amount of money borrowed from these member banks of the federal reserve system in 1927 reached the total of $23,279,515,000. This is a sum not far short of what the government borrowed to fight the European war. Great Liberty Loan drives were staged to obtain loans of approximately this amount and the government begged years in which to repay. The amount borrowed at the banks last year by the general public in the ordinary course of business was paid back quickly. Some of it was paid back in fifteen days; some was borrowed for as long as six months.

Most bank loans are made for a period of from thirty to sixty days. A suggestion that France or England or any other debtor nation pay up in sixty or ninety days would not prove very successful. Private finance is immeasurably bigger than public finance and it is all carried on quietly.

The billion and a quarter dollars paid for the use of money is, indeed, a great sum but when it is considered that it represents but a small fraction of the money used, the matter assumes an altered aspect.

In 1927 member banks of the federal reserve system earned an average of $5.30 for every $100 lent to the public. This compares with $4.46 for 1926. Interest rates were generally lower throughout the country in the latter year.

This is by no means what is popularly called velvet for the bank. The cost of lending money must enter into the equation just as much as it must enter into any business transaction. Expenses of one kind and another eat up most of the rent money, or interest. In 1927 the net profits of banks amounted to only $1.35 for every $100 lent compared with $1.37 in 1926.

A depositor places his money in the hands of a bank. He receives two, three, and sometimes as much as four per cent interest on his deposit. That is the rent which the banker must pay. It compares with the wholesale price the shoe merchant pays for shoes. Then the banker lends that money to any one who wants to borrow it; that is, any one whose credit is good. In other words he rents it out at a higher rent than what he has to pay for it.

Now, in 1927, the member banks paid out $3.30 a year for every $100 of time deposits. Time deposits are represented by money, such as savings accounts, which are not subject to immediate check but will remain in the bank for some months. Upon demand deposits, that is, checking accounts subject to withdrawal without notice, the banks paid in 1927 $1.30 interest or rent and upon deposits made by other banks they paid $2 for every $100.

The lowest rent, the $1.30 item, was paid on the largest volume. Demand deposits in 1927 amounted to $17,862,042,000. This was subject to check without notice. Many banks pay no interest at all on such accounts. The volume of time deposits for which the banks paid $3.30 per $100 was $12,138,287,000 and the deposits of other banks on which 2 per cent interest was paid was $4,119,518,000.

Other expenses include rent of banking quarters, salaries of officers and employees, insurance, and the many incidentals which arise in conducting an important business. Banks, more than almost any other sort of business, must have expensive buildings to be successful. It seems to be a part of the psychology of successful banking. The public, apparently, feels more confident in a bank which has an imposing stone edifice. Modern bank safes are extremely expensive. Of course there are banks of all sizes just as there are shoe stores. Some bank presidents draw no more salary than a government clerk of the lowest class, while others draw more than the president of the United States. At the tellers' windows, in the bookkeeping and accounting department, high class work is required and substantial salaries must be paid.

Nevertheless, with all this cost the member banks of the country in 1927 made net profits of $447,009,000 and while, as shown above, the profit per $100 in 1927 was less than in 1926, good management brought a result of $15,000,000 better than 1926.

But in figuring what a bank actually makes one takes not the 5.3 per cent figure shown as profit on loans as a whole but the sum received in interest on the whole fund, capital and deposits together, in relation to the capital, which is the bank's own money. By this rule it is shown that in 1927 the member banks of the country earned a profit of 8.66 per cent.

NEW YORK Day By Day

By O. O. McIntyre.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The last flutter of flapperism seems near in New York. What was once a big noise is now a thin whisper. The old-fashioned girl is having a revival and to be a prude is considered smarter than being flippant.

Smart cafes report a decided slump among those young girls who gathered at luncheon tables and drank themselves into blurriness. No party was considered in full cry until a generous round of cocktails had been served, and anyone who didn't indulge was a Kansas-sized wet blanket.

Nor was a party "well thrown" unless at least one flapper was found not later than midnight enjoying her forty winks among the left-over dishes in the kitchen sink. Afternoon tea was just an excuse for a start on the evening debauch. The dry party was radically a whim.

Flapperism lasted long enough for a number of matrimonially eligible maids to come to the sudden realization they had oodles of playful boy friends, but none of them was insisting upon a romp to the altar. Fun is fun, but there is no particular fun in being an old maid.

It was noticeable quite a number of high stepping lads were absenting themselves from synthetic merry-making. The next head of them they were domiciled in a cottage out where the pavement ends—married to those plain girls who do their own housework.

Girls who continued the pace wound up in a Connecticut village at midnight to marry some fortune-hunting nobleman with a cluster of adenoids and a faded family crest. And a few weeks later papa had to cough up a long chunk of the family fortune to get rid of a worthless son-in-law. During all this hoop-dee-dee there were many girls who maintained a maidenly calm and poise. The frivolities of a hectic generation apparently did not interest them. They were homebodies. And the pendulum swung back and they came into their own and are living happily ever after.

Artists and writers are reputed hopelessly dumb about finance. And yet it is whispered Clarence Boddington Kelland was recently on the right side of the market for a sum totaling nearly a million. And Arthur William Brown, the illustrator, "cheered an impulse" that made him richer by more than $150,000.

In the top tower of the Recksher building is a luxurious studio occupied by Russell Patterson, who came out of Chicago a few years ago to rap timidly at the doors of art editors to inquire if there was any "arting" he could do at home or on the premises. Among other things he has collected in his New York sojourn are a yacht, an imported motor car with a four-tone siren, and the impression New York is rather kind to strangers.

But success in New York is not always so sweet to the stranger. There is, for instance, Laurence Stallings, fighting for his country and in poverty had within a year become a fortune in royalty from a play and movie and authored a best-selling novel. It might be supposed his address would be New York from then on. But he recently pulled up stakes and with the proceeds of his clean up purchased a farm in North Carolina, where he expects to reside for some time to come.

And there are innumerable persons who came here from other cities, who made quick fortunes and will now be found occupying their villas in southern France, wondering how people endure New York.

But all this makes New York different. Nobody cares whether you come here, how long you stay, how much money you make or when and where you go.

About all New York asks of the new-comer is for him to mind his own business. And cheer for Jimmy Walker when he arrives late. And the latter is becoming one of the favorite things many are beginning to hate to do.

YOUR HEALTH

An Ounce of Prevention Is Worth A Pound of Cure.

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland.

You regulate your children's diet for them. You forbid them certain foods which you believe would be harmful and you limit the quantities. You may sometimes scold or punish the child for disobedience when the temptation of some forbidden favorite proves too strong for the young conscience.

And then you right about face and do just what you punished the child for doing. It is strange how many grown people are slaves to their appetites.

If people never ate food they believed to be bad for them they would never have indigestion. If they never overate or indulged at the wrong time, we would probably hear very little about acid stomach.

Acid stomach and heartburn are the terms commonly used to describe the condition known as "hyperacidity." This is one of the most common of ailments.

The symptoms are varied. The most common are a feeling of fullness and weight in the abdomen, belching of gas and food after eating, headache and sickness of the stomach.

Persons who are subject to hyperacidity know, or think they know, which foods cause the condition. And yet they go on eating them. Nervousness is an important factor in producing hyperacidity. The condition is most apt to occur when you are nervously tired, overworked, or overexcited. If in this condition you eat hurriedly, carelessly or too much, heartburn is likely to be the result. There could hardly be a better formula for bringing on an attack of heartburn than to holt a meal of rich foods and then hurry right off in a frenzy of excitement to keep a business or social appointment.

Constipation is nearly always a symptom of hyperacidity. Indeed, it is probably one of the causes of it. You cannot hope to cure hyperacidity until the constipation has been relieved.

The first step in correcting the condition is to regulate the diet. Omit rich foods, such as pastries and fried foods, condiments and malt liquor. Limit the amount of fats and starches. Take plenty of green vegetables and steamed fruits.

Overcome the constipation. If regulation of the diet will not do this at once, take a tablespoonful of mineral oil daily, half an hour before breakfast or three hours after the evening meal.

Words of the Wise

Judgment without vivacity of imagination is too heavy, and like a dress without fancy, and the last without the first is too gay, and but all trimming.—Garth.

It is a hard and nice subject for a man to speak of himself; it grates his own heart to say anything of disparagement, and the reader's ears to hear anything of praise from him.—Cowley.

Contentment is a pearl of great price, and those who possess it at the expense of ten thousand desires makes a wise and a happy purchase.—Balsay.

True joy is a serene and sober motion; and they are miserably out that take laughing for rejoicing; the seat of it is within.—Seneca.

Other Editors Say

Tex Rickard, Hard Loser.

A deficit large enough to disorder the financial operations even of a large city was faced by Tex Rickard, prize fight promoter, as the result of his recent amusement enterprise at Yankee Stadium. Although Rickard had realized gate receipts of roundly $8,500,000 from five previous heavy-weight ventures, yielding a large profit to himself, did he face the prospect of this week's loss with the chivalry and fortitude which the sports writers have been heralding as his very other nature? Not at all. He hastened to pass the burden of the deficit to the principals in his ring enterprise, enforcing them to accept reduced shares from the gate keeper. This incident robs the Rickard halo of some of its glamor. He is really a harder loser than some of the men who have come to misfortune in the ring.

There was another feature of the Yankee Stadium combat which may be enlightening to the populace. It is becoming apparent that the multitude is not so eager as of yore to buy its way, at fabulous prices, into Rickard arenas. It may be wearying of the very ordinary entertainment it has received in exchange. If this impulse of the populace becomes contagious, New York reformers will not have to go through the usual dreary motion, upon the eve of approaching prizefights, of appealing to the courts for injunctions, and always to be overcome. A few first class crimps in the Rickard purse will serve the use of lid-slaming upon a "brutalized sport" much better than phantom injunctions.—Akron Beacon Journal.

Once Overs

By J. J. Mundy.

Give a Thought to the Other Fellow's Idea.

You may have arrived at the time of life where you cannot excuse judgments which differ from yours.

Perhaps you feel that because you have been fairly successful, others should appreciate the soundness of your ideas.

But if you would look about you, you might see men who have advanced far beyond you and they have followed a course quite contrary to your line of thinking.

If you were an employee of these men the chances are that they would consider your work mediocre. They might insist you abandon your ideas and follow their plans.

It is so easy for a man who has progressed farther than some of his friends to have an exaggerated opinion of his personal ability.

Perhaps he pays little heed to the opinions expressed by men who have not kept up with him in a financial way.

He gives little credit to the fact that circumstances have played a large part in his success in business.

One must, of course, be able to take advantage of opportunities.

Many a man is poor because he was not in position to take his chance when it came.

Irondale Dry Agent Free on $1,500 Bond

J. P. Tice, Baynham Aide, Pleads Not Guilty to Charge of Shooting Steubenville Youth in Liquor Chase.

J. P. Tice, Irondale dry agent, and an aide to George Baynham, state prohibition agent, today was at liberty under $1,500 on a charge of shooting with intent to kill in Steubenville.

Tice, who disappeared after the shooting of Tony Soldani, 18, said to be a run-runner who attempted to escape from the dry officer Saturday, surrendered yesterday afternoon through his attorney. He entered a plea of not guilty to the charge when arraigned before Mayor Oliver Conley in the down river city.

Soldani, shot through the back, is a patient in a Steubenville hospital. He is said to be recovering.

The shooting occurred in Steubenville at 4:30 a. m. and Baynham and Tice took Soldani to the hospital. Tice then went to his home, Baynham declared, but no report of the shooting was made to police or to officials until Baynham told Prosecutor Merryman about it at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. Baynham says Tice claimed Soldani shot at him, but the gun has not been found.

Police learned of the shooting at the hospital after Soldani was admitted. Detectives today questioned Soldani, who gave his version of the affair. He said:

"I had a can of whiskey I was delivering to a place in Sumner alley about 4:30 a. m.," he said, "I was stopped and was just lifting the can out of the machine when somebody grabbed me by the shoulder from behind. I did not know who it was. At the same time the can was dragged out of my hands and then I was knocked down. "I got up and started to run and then I was shot. I fell when I was hit and heard some one coming towards me. I got up again and tried to run when a second shot was fired. I dropped to the ground and stayed there. Then a man with a gun in his hand came up to me and I saw it was Tice. That was the first I knew who it was shot me.

"He grabbed me and dragged me back through the alley to my machine and later I was brought here. That is all I know about it."

Baynham's Statement.

The story Baynham told Prosecutor Merryman and reporters follows:

"I did not see the shooting. We have been lying in wait at 715 Sumner alley for several nights for Soldani. He is more than 18, he's about 20. We arrested him at his home a year ago, 242 South Sixth street, finding a sub-cellar still. He was fined $1,000 at Adena. He drove up in the car and we jumped for him. There was 19 gallons of liquor in the car. He started to run down the alley and on to Seventh street. I stood guard over the liquor and Tice went after him.

"The shooting happened on Seventh street. I heard three shots. Tice told me that Soldani shot at him and then he shot. We took him in that car to the hospital."

New features in the NEW STUDEBAKERS

... See them now

Even the brief glimpse of these smart new Studebakers, as they flash past on open road or boulevard, tells its story of rare body artistry and low, fleet lines.

But come in now and examine, at your leisure, the repeated evidence of Studebaker engineering genius, expressed in the luxury, comfort and performance of these splendid motor cars!

Then drive one. You may have owned a dozen costly cars, but you'll find that in these new Studebakers American inventive genius has surpassed them all. No other car ever built can give you such a wonderful ride.

Only a few of the great Studebaker achievements are pictured here. There are many more. No matter how much or little you plan to invest in your new car, you will want to see them. Come in today!

STUDEBAKER'S FOUR NEW LINES

The President Eight . . . $1685 to $2485

The Commander . . . 1435 to 1665

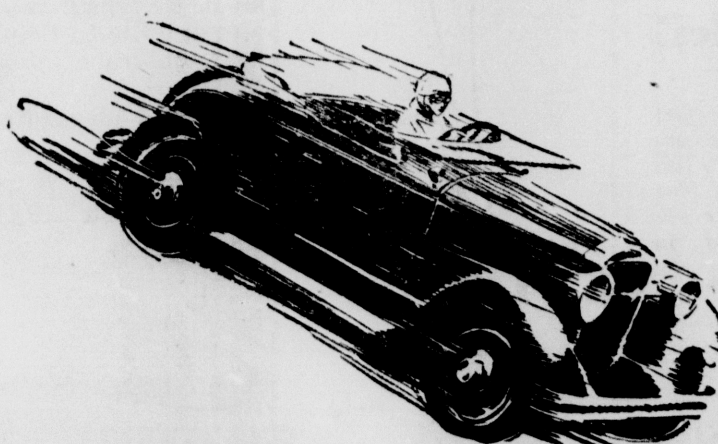

The Dictator . . . 1185 to 1395

The Erskine . . . 835 to 1045

Ball bearing spring shackles—a new and exclusive Studebaker feature. Greatest improvement in motor comfort since the balloon tire! Freedom of spring action never before considered possible. No squeaks, rattles and adjustments. Each shackle contains lubricant for upwards of 20,000 miles—a great advance over any other system of chassis lubrication.

Dramatic proof of the ease with which these new Studebakers may be driven is offered by the remarkable records recently established by girls driving under official A. A. A. supervision at Atlantic City Speedway. For 500 miles, these girls with only ordinary experience maintained an average speed of 70 miles per hour in The President Sedan, 58 in The Erskine, 60 in The Dictator and 77 in The Commander Roadster.

Straight Eight engine used in The President. 109 velvet horsepower. The smoothness with which this great motor drives the luxurious President sedans at sustained high speeds proves it the finest power plant ever placed in an automobile. Yet The President sells at a One Profit price—$1685 to $2485 at factory. Nineteen 8-cylinder sedans have less horsepower yet sell at higher prices.

SMITH WINDS UP VACATION
ON WEDNESDAY

Democratic Nominee
Seeks Advice on White Attack.

RASKOB TO ACT
Governor Probably Will Campaign in Border States.

By RAYMOND I. BORST
SOUTHAMPTON, N. Y., July 31.—When Governor Al Smith winds up his brief vacation on Long Island tomorrow and returns to New York he is expected to seek the advice of national Chairman John J. Raskob and Senator Peter G. Gerry, chairman of the Democratic advisory committee, as to whether he should answer or ignore the latest attack by William Allen White, Kansas, editor.

The governor's present intention is not to pay any attention to White's charge that when he, Smith, was a young assemblyman he always voted to protect the saloon and the liquor traffic. However, if Raskob and some of his other close advisers are of the opinion that he should return White's fire he will do so in the usual Smith manner without mincing words.

Blames Civic League Chief
According to close friends of Smith, he feels that the Rev. O. R. Miller of Albany, superintendent of the New York State Civic League, and editor of the "Reform Bulletin," is to blame for the White attack.

In Albany recently the governor asserted that "White should have had more brains than to take such bunk from Miller." He also characterized the Rev. Mr. Miller as "an admitted liar," and an "18 karat fakir."

If the governor finally decides to answer White's latest broadside his friends say he will point to the fact that when he was first elected to the lower house of the legislature his vote was frequently recorded for and against bills of which he had no personal knowledge. The governor will say that the same thing is still being done in the legislature and that many times during the course of a session the leaders of both parties vote their members on bills which, in many instances, they never have read.

Outlines Acceptance Speech.
The governor also is expected to have to talk with Raskob on some of the campaign issues with which he will deal extensively in the address he will deliver on August 22, in formally accepting the presidential nomination. He has let it be known that a considerable part of his speech will center around prohibition and farm relief.

The confidence expressed by Smith that he will carry the southern states, despite reported defections in the Democratic ranks, is based, it was learned today, on information furnished by Chairman Raskob within the last few days by party leaders from south of the Mason-Dixon line.

Indications are, however, that the governor plans to carry his campaign into some of the border states.

The governor is making most of the first brief vacation he has had since he was nominated. He is making up for some lost sleep, but he also is getting plenty of exercise swimming and playing golf.

What many people call indigestion very often means excess acid in the stomach. The stomach nerves have been over-stimulated, and food sours. The corrective is an alkali, which neutralizes acids instantly. And the best alkali known to medical science is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained the standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

One spoonful of this harmless, tasteless alkali in water will neutralize instantly many times as much acid, and the symptoms disappear at once. You will never use crude methods when once you learn the efficiency of this. Go get a small bottle to try.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. 25c and 50c a bottle—any drugstore.

Former residents of East Liverpool, Wellsville and vicinity, living in southern California, held their fourteenth annual picnic, Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles, Saturday, July 21.

More than 100 attended. As no outing was held last year, doubt was expressed recently as to whether the affairs could be successfully revived but in the opinion of those who attended it was a big success.

HINT BOY KING TO LOSE THRONE

BERLIN, July 31.—Little six-year old Michael, the child king of Romania, may lose his throne temporarily.

Private advices from Bucharest today said that leaders of the national peasant party are advocating a plan to make Queen Marie, grandmother of Michael, either ruling queen or regent.

If Marie should become ruling queen, Michael would be proclaimed her successor. If she became queen-regent, she would rule in the name of Michael.

Peasant leaders who formerly supported the return of Carol, have now turned against him on account of his conduct abroad.

The missing men, for whose bodies police are grappling, are:

William Woods, engineer; Joseph Martine and John Durado, firemen.

The Corporal, another lighter of the Merritt Chapman Scott company, lying alongside the Chancellor, suffered heavy damage from the explosion.

Immediately after the explosion, which shook piers and buildings along the Stapleton shore line, Police Captain John Masterson summoned a fire boat.

Seventy-five Chicago gentlemen are said to have made $100,000,000 on such transactions. And because it would have embarrassed the government they said nothing about income taxes.

ENGLISHMAN WINS 800-METER RACE

OLYMPIC STADIUM, Amsterdam, July 31.—Douglas Lowe, the dark brooding, handsome Englishman won the classic 800-meter race on the Olympic program this afternoon, the race which all America had been fondly hoping would go to its ace, Lloyd Hahn.

In gaining his decision, Lowe repeated his victory of 1924 at Paris. The defeat of the Americans, particularly Hahn, came as a bitter pill for the Yankee contingent to swallow especially after the American reverses that came in the 100-meter dash, the hammer throw and 400-meter hurdles yesterday. The American section of the stands gave Hahn, Earl Fuller and Ray Watson, a rousing cheer as they lined up for the start with the remaining nine finalists.

Ed Hamm, Georgia Tech, established a new Olympic record of 25 feet 4 inches in assuming a lead over the field in the running broad jump this afternoon. Hamm made a new world's record in the event in the official American trials at Cambridge, Mass.

CRASH VICTIMS ARE RECOVERING

Three women, who were injured in an automobile collision on the Canton hill west of Lisbon Sunday afternoon, were recovering today.

The injured were Mrs. Richard McCracken, East End, who was cut on the forehead and knee; Mrs. Charles McCrudden, Fairview street, who was lacerated on the head and her daughter, Miss Rosella McCrudden, also of Fairview street, who was bruised.

The accident occurred when an automobile driven by Dr. J. C. Gruber, Lisbon, crashed into the McCracken motor car. The two cars went off the side of the road and struck another automobile owned by Truman Palmer.

Boy is Killed in Street.

LORAIN, O., July 31.—Ten-year-old Michael Helro is dead today and two smaller companions are in a hospital, seriously injured, as the result of being run down by a motor truck yesterday while the three were playing in the street. Helro's companions were Antone Stiall, 4, and Capricio Fay, 3. The driver of the truck is held by police.

George White's Mother-in-law Dies.

MARIETTA, O., July 31.—All speaking arrangements of George White, Marietta, Democratic candidate for the U. S. senate, for the week were cancelled today following word received here of the death of his mother-in-law in the east. He left for Titusville, Pa., where the funeral will be held.

Former Governor of Utah Dies.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, July 31.—John C. Cutler, 82, second governor of Utah and prominent banker of this city, was dead here today as the result of what police termed a self-inflicted bullet wound in the head. Dependence over ill health and worries over personal business affairs were blamed.

Indict Man on Graft Charge.

ST. LOUIS, July 31.—Fred Miller, prosecuting attorney for St. Louis county has been indicted on a charge of receiving $200 from a man in return for a promise not to prosecute. It was revealed here today in connection with a special grand jury investigation into alleged county graft and corruption.

WHITE EXPLAINS HIS ATTACK ON GOV. AL SMITH

Editor's Statement Modifies Some of His Charges.

HITS TAMMANY

Campaign Organized on Candidate's Record
for Saloon.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Following the publication this morning of a review of the legislative report of Governor Al Smith while he was a member of the New York legislature in which William Allen White, Kansas editor, charged Governor Smith had voted consistently with Tammany to protect the saloon, gambling and vice, White today issued a statement modifying and withdrawing some of his charges.

White's statement was as follows: "Yesterday talking to Walter Lippmann of the World, a friend of Governor Smith and of mine for many years, I learned that Governor Smith was deeply aggrieved that I should charge him with protecting gambling and prostitution in his assembly record. I can understand after considering what Mr. Lippmann said that the governor in casting those votes against those reform bills might honestly have felt that the bills were unconstitutional or were not enforceable or infringed upon personal liberty or encouraged police blackmail.

Does Not Question Motives.

"These bills did not so impress others who voted for the bills but Governor Smith certainly is entitled to fair treatment. I always have tried to fight fair. I have never consciously questioned any man's motives and so this morning before the morning papers have come and before I know what, if any, reply Governor Smith has made to my statement I desire to withdraw the charges formally insofar as they affect his votes on gambling and prostitution but not his position as to the saloon.

"On the question of the menace of Tammany and of Governor Smith's Tammany record for the open saloon the whole issue of the campaign is becoming organized.

Withdraws Votes on Gambling.

"Protected prostitution is quickly passing out of American life and that issue is not vital. But vital or not, I could not in good conscience press this issue realizing that Governor Smith whom I greatly admire for his many high qualities feels that my charges question the purity of his motives which always should be granted in any political controversy. So the ten or dozen votes on gambling and prostitution come out of the record.

"I hope now American newspapers and particularly Republican newspapers, will give the same consideration to this statement that they gave my statement yesterday."

EXONERATE AUTO DRIVER IN DEATH

Samuel Meador, East End carpenter, was exonerated by Coroner W. J. MacGregor, Pittsburgh, from all responsibility in connection with the death of Annie C. Diamond, 7, McDonald, Pa., who was killed July 15 when struck by Meador's automobile, Allegheny county authorities announced today. The death was due to an "unavoidable accident," the coroner's jury ruled.

$40,000 DAMAGE IN DAYTON FIRE

DATON, O., July 31.—Valuable records and 2,000 fire registers were destroyed and the warehouse of the Ohmer Fare Register company was in ruins today following a fire which swept the structure late yesterday. Loss will exceed $40,000.

This was the second factory blaze within 24 hours in Dayton, making a loss of more than $60,000. The first fire was in the Stomps Burkhardt warehouse, said to have been started by three boys "just for fun."

Cleveland Killed by Auto.

CLEVELAND, July 31.—Cleveland's July traffic toll reached 22 today with the death of Joseph Sitz, 36, who succumbed in a hospital this morning to injuries received last week when his automobile collided with a street car during a rain storm.

Labor Favors Hoover

organized railroad workers and miners in the historic shopmen and coal strike of 1922.

It also cited Hoover's advocacy of scientific management, elimination of waste in industry, standardization practices, accident prevention and, finally, the Republican administration record during the last four years in the restriction of immigration—a cardinal policy of organized American workers.

Tariff is Factor.

The tariff as a factor in the present high level of American wages, and the vital necessity of maintaining that standard, were cited in debate as additional Republican contributions to the welfare of labor. Hoover's public utterances upon the theory of wages that wages should increase with production—was also advanced by President Green as a point of agreement between the policies of the federation and the Republican party in the present campaign.

Frank Morrison, a protégé and old-time fighting companion of the late Samuel Gompers, carried the fight before the executive council against a formal endorsement of Governor Smith's attitude on prohibition, as expressed in his eleventh hour message to the Houston convention.

RENEW OBREGON DEATH INQUIRY

MEXICO CITY, July 31.—Although Jos Leon Toral, the 27-year-old fanatic who assassinated President-elect Alvaro Obregon, declared that he had acted alone and that the Catholic church or Labor party was not implicated, the police today continued with vigor their investigation.

Police efforts were spurred by the statements made by Toral in his confession that a plot existed against the life of President Calles.

The police questioned a number of Catholic nuns, including Concepcion Acebedo de la Lata, as to whether they had any conversation with the self-confessed assassin before Gen. Obregon was shot. Among the prisoners taken since the shooting are between 15 and 20 nuns. There are about 22 men prisoners.

REPORTS FROM STOCK MARKETS

NEW YORK, July 31.—Uneasiness over the call loan situation and the loss of control over speculative borrowings by the New York banks caused reactionary price movements in a number of the industrial stock favorites at the beginning of trading today. It was thought that withdrawals of money throughout the day, in preparation for the August settlements, would be in large volume, handicapping forward movements in the stock market. The renewal call loan rate was 6 per cent.

Consummation of the Dodge-Chrysler merger was announced after the close of yesterday's market, but a last-minute stock market coup, in which 10,000 shares of Dodge preference stock were purchased for the Chrysler interests, was necessary to secure a 90 per cent approval of the merger. This explains the recent strength of the Dodge preference stock over other classes of motor stock involved in the merger.

Wall Street's interest was centered in the reports of huge profit made in the merger deal by the Dillon, Read & company banking house.

Chicago Grains.

BATTLESHIPS, PLANES HUNT RACING YACHT

Azara, American Entrant, Reported Missing.

ANXIETY GROWS

Ohioan is Aboard Lost
Vessel in Santander Contest.

SANTANDER, Spain, July 31.—Merchant ships, warcraft and sea-planes today continued the search for the American sailing yacht Azara, an entrant in the New York-Santander race which is overdue and missing.

Wireless stations on the coast broadcast an appeal to all ships to watch for the Azara.

Anxiety over the yacht and the fate of the crew is growing.

The Azara, owned in Detroit, sailed from New York on June 30.

SPRINGFIELD, O., July 31.—Grave fears for the safety of E. E. Greiner, treasurer of the Buffalo Springfield Roller Co., were held by the Springfield man's friends today over the non-appearance of the missing yacht "Azara" which left New York five weeks ago as a contestant in the race for the King Alfonso cup. Greiner sailed as a guest on the tiny boat, which, sea-faring men say, should have made port at Santander a week ago.

Advices from Detroit stated that officials of the Detroit Yacht club, sponsoring the Azara's entry, are confident that the yacht will turn up safe in two or three days, the opinion being voiced that the Azara had not sailed into Santander harbor simply because it is a much slower craft than the other entries.

Finding Against Bank

tional bank and the Potters' bank adopted July 1, 1918, for three years, expired July 1, 1921, while the contract with the Community bank, which Powelson declares was "illegally" named a depository by the trustees, terminated December 1, 1927.

Quotes General Code. In his report Powelson quotes section 4515 of the general code of Ohio which requires that the trustees of the sinking fund "shall advertise for proposals for the deposit of all sums held in reserve" every three years. These depositories shall be selected by competitive bidding and award made to the bank offering the highest rate of interest, according to Powelson's interpretation of the state law.

Powelson, in his report, also refers to the minutes of the meeting of the sinking fund trustees, on December 1, 1924 when the Community bank was named a depository of city funds. Inasmuch as this selection was not made by competitive bidding, the award, Powelson asserts, was "illegal."

The state examiner declares that George Dustman, another state examiner called the attention of the sinking fund trustees to this "irregularity" when he inspected the municipal office records here four years ago but that no action was taken by the trustees toward the adoption of new contracts with the banks.

"The language of Section 4515 of the general code is sufficiently clear to admit of no misunderstanding," Powelson's report says. "With said provisions of the statutes the sinking fund trustees were familiar, notwithstanding they have persistently refused and neglected to select a depository for the sinking funds through advertisement and at competitive bidding. We know of no board of sinking fund trustees in the state that has evidenced such delinquency."

Calls for Security. Powelson also charges that the sinking fund trustees have been negligent in safeguarding city funds from losses in that the depositories have not been "required to file bond for the security of such funds." The general code, the examiner points out, requires that the depository security for the sinking funds must not be less than 20 per cent in excess of the maximum amount on deposit.

In urging that the banks be required to furnish security for these funds, Powelson says that the "trustees will insure themselves against embarrassment in event the depository bank should fail to meet its obligations to depositors."

The examiner also urges that the trustees buy from its surplus funds securities for investment purposes. Since the last examination the trustees purchased investment securities to the amount of $7,494.20. These securities, the examiner states, draw interest at a rate of five per cent while the rate of interest at the bank is but two per cent. He cites a letter written to City Auditor William McGraw on March 16, 1926, in which the trustees declined to buy $33,708.08 street improvement bonds at par.

Urges Investment of Funds.

"This plan is not in harmony with law nor conservative of the interests of the city," the report declared. "Through the failure of the trustees to observe the surplus funds under my not investing in securities paying a higher rate of interest than that obtained from the banks the taxpayers were the losers to the extent of several thousand dollars."

During the depository period from January 1, 1926, to June 30, 1928, the following daily average cash balances were reported at the three banks: Potters National bank, $68,825.00; Community bank, $20,390.00; First National bank, $9,555.12. The Citizens' bank which was also a depository up to the time of its consolidation with the First National bank, reported a cash balance of $2,530.00 from January 1 to March 31, 1926.

MILL PICKETTS DEFY POLICE

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., July 31.—Again defying the order of city authorities, picketing of the 56 textile mill units here continued today.

While 256 strike pickets and their sympathizers were awaiting court arraignment by yelling and singing in their cells at police headquarters—eight and ten being lodged in a single cell—the picket lines moved back and forward in front of the mill gates. At the Whitman mill 60 pickets and their sympathizers were out, 100 were at the gates of the Acushnet mill, smaller delegations marched in front of the other mills. Police predicted wholesale arrests late this afternoon.

Turk Nash Bows To Katies, 2-1; Madison Wins At Chester, 6-5

Pair of Singles in 8th Breaks up East End Tilt

Mundy and Stoffel Duel on Hilltop; Justice is Victor in Smith Field Game; Errors Handicap Home Club.

MADISON Billiards stepped out of the cellar position in the City Industrial league race by toppling Chester last night, 6 to 5, at Smith Field.

The hits being even—almost nine for Chester and eight for the visitors—the Billiards profited largely through Chester errors, five being chalked against the West Virginians. Justice, former Laughlin hurler, received just about perfect support from his mates while Bennett, on the hilltop for Chester, was in the hole on numerous occasions as a result of slips in his club's defense.

Campbell, Cebula and A. Vanaman crashed out a pair of hits apiece for Chester while Morgan, with two bingles in four times up, was the boss catcher for the East Enders. And the game despite errors, was not lacking in real baseball here and there, running, Mollot's throw to the plate highlights including Campbell's stop of Springer's smash in which Morgan and Dushman made a double killing, and Davis' peg to home to knock-off Cebula.

Visitors Score in Opener
Billiards scored two runs in the first inning, infield error put Dushman in and Roberts walked. Both scored on Martin's two-bagger. Morgan singled to left but Mollot's perfect throw to the plate cut off Martin as he attempted to count.

Chester cut the visitors' lead a run in their half. Campbell walked, swiped second and scored on Cebula's two-bagger to center.

Another Chester run in the third and the score was tied. Campbell again started it, getting another walk. He stole second, went to third as Densmore threw out McConnell in first and finished on Justice's wild pitch.

A hit batter, a solitary safe hit, a wild pitch, a bad peg, a walk and four of the Billiards crossed the plate in the fourth. Justice was hit and went to second on Davis' single. Both moved up on a wild pitch. Dushman was walked, leading the bags. On Roberts' rap to Marshall at second, Justice reached first unopposed and Dushman wound up at third. Roberts went on to second as Bennett's Chamberlin cut at first. Both Dushman and Roberts scored when Campbell uncorked a wild peg to first on Martin's grounder.

Chester Rallies in Seventh.
For the third time during the game, Campbell led the way to another Chester run in the fifth. He beat out a hit to short, stole second and scored on Wyant's single. The home club made a desperate bid for the game in the final inning. Campbell again beat out an infield hit, stole second and moved up on McConnell's single. The latter stole second and both scored on Cebula's single through short. Cebula unrelented second. On Vanaman's single to center, Cebula started home with the run that would have knotted the count but Lefty Davis' throw from the pasture came in like a bullet and with somewhat similar accuracy, cutting off Cebula as he dashed into the plate.

One of the real diamond classics of the present City league season, Don Stoffel making his debut in a K. T. K. uniform, meted out four hits to Turk Nash last night at Columbian park and, aided by timely bingles in the eighth by "Cracker" Howell, a pinch hitter, and the veteran Jack O'Brosky, pitched the Potters to a 2-1 victory over Turk Nash.

Singles by Howell and O'Brosky in the overtime period ended one of the finest hurling duels of the present campaign, between Stoffel and Bill Mundy, the latter doing the chucking for the Motors.

Up until the eighth, the two pitchers were on even terms, each having held opposition swatters to four scattered blows. And, peculiarly enough there was a triple on each side, and each triple was responsible for a run.

Stoffel Traded for Baker.
Stoffel performed in K. T. K. raiment last night as a result of a trade between the Potters and the Madison Billiards yesterday in which the Billiards gave up Stoffel for "Lefty" Baker, former mound star on the McCoy staff.

Not a runner reached first base until the third when Stoffel singled. The Motors failed to reach the bag until the fourth when Godwin made it on a single.

And there was not even a sign of a run until the fifth, the Katies coming first. After T. O'Brosky had popped to McMath, Hall doubled down the third base line. Trout fanned but Stoffel, registering his second hit of the game, crashed out a triple to deep center, Hall counting.

Eddie Bayley was retired at first by Johnny Watson.
Turk Nash knotted the count in the sixth. After Eddie Bayley had thrown out Hunselman at first, Bill Mundy singled to right. Mundy, however, was forced at second when Godwin hit one at Bayley. Bayley stepped on the keystone bag and threw hurriedly to first in an attempt at a double play. His throw went wide and Godwin continued on to second. A few moments later he stole third and scored on Heckathorne's three-base clout to left. Alf Bayley flew out to middle.

Howell Starts Rally.
"Cracker" Howell, K. T. K. pitcher was delegated to bat for Trout in the eighth and strode to the plate as the initial bludgeon wielder of the inning. Howell swung and drove the ball safely through second. Stoffel, next up, drove one into the dirt in front of him, the ball hitting the plate. Umpire Loran ruled the ball had hit him. Eddie Bayley flew out to right. Howell stole second as Jack O'Brosky swung his bat and tore home with the winning run when O'Brosky lined one on the ground through second.

Rickard Planning Next Bout

Gene "Retiring" as Tex Goes on With His Work.

By Davis J. Walsh.
NEW YORK, July 31.—It may or may not be significant that, while Gene Tunney was supposed to be preparing today the valedictory of his professional career, his withdrawal from the sport that elevated him from the status of obscure clerk to a position of international significance, Tex Rickard was quietly setting his plans to match Tunney with Jack Sharkey for the heavyweight championship next September. Rickard admitted that this was his intention and intimated that he had good reason to believe it would be carried through.

"Don't forget Tunney is signed with me for next year," Rickard said. "He signed that contract only two weeks ago and, at the time, he assured me that he would be ready to defend the title, provided I could develop a challenger who figured to give him a real fight. That puts it up to me and I'm going to try to come through."

Tex Must Act Quickly.
Rickard dined with Tunney and Bernard Gimbel on Sunday but had nothing to say about what transpired. The fact, however, that he felt optimistic enough today to discuss a Tunney fight for next year indicated that their dialogue was not altogether of a discouraging nature.

There is only one suggestion that can be offered Rickard in this matter. That is to develop his contender with all due haste or resign himself to bearing up bravely without Gene Tunney's future assistance. Everything is against Tunney attempting a comeback if his proposed activity extends into a second year. He has taken the examples afforded by Dempsey and Jeffries too much to heart to attempt any fight he thinks he might not win. He could come back for a victory, never if he could help it for a defeat. And he knows that two years off the canvas usually is about five years off one's professional life.

It seems to be taken for granted that Tunney's statement, to be issued this afternoon at a luncheon given for William Muldoon, boxing commissioner, will announce his retirement from the heavyweight title. The writer even obtained an inadequate admission to this effect this morning from the gentleman's secretary, to whom he had been talking about plans for the luncheon.

Will Announce Retirement.
"Of course, the statement will announce his retirement?" the writer asked. "Oh, sure," came the unguarded reply.

Upon which, the young man got himself seized with panic and protested almost tearfully that he knew nothing about it, couldn't speak for Tunney and wished to have the entire thought wiped off the record.

Speaking of significance again, it may seem possible that there is none connected with this incident because the young man I'm talking about is the same young man who is presumed to have worked so hard typing Mr. Tunney's formal statement to the press.

Bucs Bag Double With Braves

BOSTON, July 31.—The Pittsburgh Pirates put across two one-run victories over the Boston Braves yesterday, winning 2 to 1 in the first game of the double header and 6 to 5 in ten innings in the second. The winning run in the first game developed from L. Waner's base on balls in the eighth inning, an infield out and Traynor's single. It was a pitcher's battle between Kremer and Brandt.

Mackmen Continue Onslaught

Lick Browns as Yankees Drop Another to Tribe.

By LES CONKLIN
NEW YORK, July 31.—The spurt of the Athletics, coupled with the amazing slump of the Yankees, is getting to be as exciting as Sheridan's ride. Seven straight for the A's, and first place only 5½ games away!

Despite Babe Ruth's 41st homer, the league leaders took another wallop on teh bezer from Cleveland yesterday, 4 to 2. Ruth's mates couldn't do anything with southpaw Walter Miller. Manager Huggins is so shy of good pitchers that he is considering sending Ruth to the mound. The Babe's return to the box after years of outfielding might be a flop, but how the gate receipts would soar!

Although outbatted, the Athletics nosed out the Browns in the ninth, 5 to 4. The reorganization of the Mackmen finds the veterans Cobb and Speaker on the bench, Haas in center field, pitcher Orwoll on first and catcher Fox on third.

The National League race also tightened up as New York won and St. Louis, Cincinnati and Chicago were beaten. The Giants took third place away from the Cubs and Pittsburgh finally jumped ahead of Brooklyn into fifth place.

Rube Bressler, formerly of Cincinnati, nicked his business partner Ep Rixey, for a hit that gave Brooklyn a 2 to 1 win over the Reds.

The Cardinals also were beaten by two of their castoffs, catcher Davis and pitcher McGraw. The latter's relief pitching and Davis' hit in the sixteenth won for the Phillies, 5 to 7. Don Hurst and Cy Williams each hit for the circuit with two on.

Faulkner, Ott and Hogan, all of whom were wows on the high school circuit a couple of years ago, helped the Giants trim Chicago, 4 to 1. Faulkner held the Cubs to four hits and Ott and Hogan nicked Fat Malone, former Giant, for homers.

Pittsburgh two-timed Boston, 2 to 1 and 6 to 5. Grimes registered his 17th victory in the nightcap. Alphonse Thomas of the White Sox whitewashed Washington, 6 to 0 and Harry Rice's homer in the ninth enabled Holloway of Detroit, to win a 2 to 1 duel from big Ed Morris of the Red Sox.

Sacrifice bunts—Sisler, Greenfield, Grimes.
Sacrifice flies—Sisler, Traynor.
Left on bases—Pittsburgh 7, Boston 9.

Struck out—By Hill 1 (Bell); by Grimes 1 (Sphorner); by Greenfield 5 (Hill 2, Grantham, Wright 2).
Winning pitcher—Grimes.
Losing pitcher—Barnes.
